7	INFORMATION REPORT OD	1
A constant	/
		spainay.
SUBJECT M	insk/pouth Airfield 2
PLACE ACQUIRED	NO. OF ENCLS.	2
DATE OF	SUPPLEMENT TO
INFO.	REPORT NO.	2
		2:
et of the United Stat	WANDS INFORMATION ARE COME TO SECTION TO SEE THE TO SECTION OF THE 16, SECTION 755 THE COME AS ANEMOND OF THE	۷,
IS PROHIBITED BY LA	THE S TO GO RECEIVE FY ON UNAUTHORNEED FERSON WE THE REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS TROUBLITED. THE REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS TROUBLITED.	25
1.	The airfield south of the MINSE (27°34'E/53°54'N) freight station, between two railroad lines, was being expanded, at work was scheduled to be completed by 1950. The field had	nd.
	railroad connection and a 6,600-foot asphalt runway.
2.0	The hanger (200x135x35 feet) had been under construction since 1946. The hanger had been dismantled at the BERLIN-	7
2 •	The hanger (200x135x35 feet) had been under construction since 1946. The hanger had been dismantled at the BURLIN-TELPSLHOF airfield.
	since 1946. The hangar had been dismantled at the BERLIN- TELPELHOF airfield. Two four-story brick buildings, each 115x65x40 feet, were
	Two four-story brick buildings, each 115x65x40 feet, were built in 1946/1947 and occupied by construction workers and eir force soldiers. Two other brick buildings, each 265x
	Two four-story brick buildings, each 115x65x40 feet, were built in 1946/1947 and occupied by construction workers and eir force soldiers. Two other brick buildings, each 265x 135x65 feet, were occupied by pilots and other officers. Three storage sheds for circuaft accessories, garages, and
	Two four-story brick buildings, each 115x65x40 feet, were built in 1946/1947 and occupied by construction workers and sir force soldiers. Two other brick buildings, each 265x 135x65 feet, were occupied by pilots and other officers. Three storage sheds for circust accessories, garages, and repair shops were also available.
	Two four-story brick buildings, each 115x65x40 feet, were built in 1946/1947 and occupied by construction workers and eir force soldiers. Two other brick buildings, each 265x 135x65 feet, were occupied by pilots and other officers. Three storage sheds for circuaft accessories, garages, and
3 •	Two four-story brick buildings, each 115x65x40 feet, were built in 1946/1947 and occupied by construction workers and sir force soldiers. Two other brick buildings, each 265x 135x65 feet, were occupied by pilots and other officers. Three storage sheds for circraft accessories, garages, and repair shops were also available. A radio station was in a four-story brick building, which is	Raŭ
3. 4.	Two four-story brick buildings, each 115x65x40 feet, were built in 1946/1947 and occupied by construction workers and air force soldiers. Two other brick buildings, each 265x 135x65 feet, were occupied by pilots and other officers. Three storage sheds for circraft accessories, garages, and repair shops were also available. A radio station was in a four-story brick building, which is a rotating searchlight on its roof. A fuel dump of 26 large tanks, camouflaged by trees, was copleted by June 1948. Another 20 tanks were scheduled. The field was occupied by twin-engine Pouglas aircraft and	laŭ.
3. 4.	Two four-story brick buildings, each 115x65x40 feet, were built in 1946/1947 and occupied by construction workers and air force soldiers. Two other brick buildings, each 265x 135x65 feet, were occupied by pilots and other officers. Three storage sheds for circraft accessories, garages, and repair shops were also available. A radio station was in a four-story brick building, which is a rotating searchlight on its roof. A fuel dump of 26 large tanks, camouflaged by trees, was copleted by June 1948. Another 20 tanks were scheduled. The field was occupied by twin-engine bouglas aircraft and biplanes. The airfield personnel included 300 to 350 of field and all. The field was guarded by air force soldiers and by	iai m-
4 . 55.	Two four-story brick buildings, each 115x65x40 feet, were built in 1946/1947 and occupied by construction workers and sir force soldiers. Two other brick buildings, each 265x 135x65 feet, were occupied by pllots and other officers. Three storage sheds for circraft accessories, garages, and repair shops were also available. A radio station was in a four-story brick building, which is a rotating searchlight on its roof. A fuel dump of 26 large tanks, camouflaged by trees, was copleted by June 1948. Another 20 tanks were scheduled. The field was occupied by twin-engine Douglas aircraft and biplanes. The airfield personnel included 300 to 350 of field and the field was guarded by air force soldiers and by civilians. The E-W and N-S dimensions of and communical circled just	iai m-
3°. 5°.	Two four-story brick buildings, each libx65x40 feet, were built in 1946/1947 and occupied by construction workers and sir force soldiers. Two other brick buildings, each 265x 135x65 feet, were occupied by pilots and other officers. Three storage sheds for circraft accessories, garages, and repair shops were also available. A radio station was in a four-story brick building, which is a rotating searchlight on its roof. A fuel dump of 26 large tanks, camouflaged by trees, was completed by June 1948. Another 20 tanks were scheduled. The field was occupied by twin-ongine bouglas aircraft and biplanes. The airfield personnel included 300 to 350 of ficend the The field was guarded by air force soldiers and by civilians. The E-W and M-S dimensions of the compaction in field just east of the Minsk-Shutsk (27°53° 1/53°1'N) road were 10,000 feet E-W and 8,300 feet N-S. The airfield was being	iai m-
3°. 5°.	Two four-story brick buildings, each listestato feet, were built in 1946/1947 and occupied by construction workers and sir force soldiers. Two other brick buildings, each 265x 135x65 feet, were occupied by pilots and other officers. Three storage sheds for circraft accessories, garages, and repair shops were also available. A radio station was in a four-story brick building, which is a rotating searchlight on its roof. A fuel dump of 26 large tanks, camouflaged by trees, was completed by June 1948. Another 20 tanks were scheduled. The field was occupied by twin-ongine bouglas aircraft and biplanes. The airfield personnel included 300 to 350 of fice and the The field was guarded by air force soldiers and by civilians. The E-W and M-S dimensions of the compaction of the Minsk-Shutsk (27°53°1/53°1'N) road were 10,000 feet E-W and 8,300 feet N-S. The airfield was being	iai m-
3。 4。 5。 6。 7。 AR RE-REVI	Two four-story brick buildings, each 115x65x40 feet, were built in 1946/1947 and occupied by construction workers and sir force soldiers. Two other brick buildings, each 265x 135x65 feet, were occupied by plots and other officers. Three storage sheds for circraft accessories, garages, and repair shops were also available. A radio station was in a four-story brick building, which is a rotating searchlight on its roof. A fuel dump of 26 large tanks, camouflaged by trees, was copleted by June 1948. Another 20 tanks were scheduled. The field was occupied by twin-engine bouglas aircraft and biplanes. The airfield personnel included 300 to 350 officerd MI. The field was guarded by air force soldiers and by civilians. The E-W and N-S dimensions of the communication of the Mansk-Shutsk (27°33° 1/35°1'N) road were 10,000 feet N-W and 8,300 feet N-S. The airfield was being lew	iai m-
4。 5。 6。 7。 AR RE-REVI	Two four-story brick buildings, each libx65x40 feet, were built in 1946/1947 and occupied by construction workers and sir force soldiers. Two other brick buildings, each 265x 135x65 feet, were occupied by pilots and other officers. Three storage sheds for circraft accessories, garages, and repair shops were also available. A radio station was in a four-story brick building, which is a rotating searchlight on its roof. A fuel dump of 26 large tanks, camouflaged by trees, was completed by June 1948. Another 20 tanks were scheduled. The field was occupied by twin-ongine bouglas aircraft and biplanes. The airfield personnel included 300 to 350 of ficend the The field was guarded by air force soldiers and by civilians. The E-W and M-S dimensions of the compaction in field just east of the Minsk-Shutsk (27°53° 1/53°1'N) road were 10,000 feet E-W and 8,300 feet N-S. The airfield was being	ead Con-
3。 4。 5。 6。 7。 AR RE-REVI	since 1946. The hanger had been dismantled at the ECRLIN-TELPELHOF airfield. Two four-story brick buildings, each 115x65x40 feet, were built in 1946/1947 and occupied by construction workers and eir force soldiers. Two other brick buildings, each 265x 135x65 feet, were occupied by pilots and other officers. Three storage sheds for circraft accessories, garages, and repair shops were also aveilable. A radio station was in a four-story brick building, which is a rotating searchlight on its roof. A fuel dump of 26 large tanks, camouflaged by trees, was completed by June 1948. Another 20 tanks were scheduled. The field was occupied by twin-engine Douglas aircraft and biplanes. The airfield personnel included 300 to 350 officers and Mil. The field was guarded by air force soldiers and by civilians. The E-W and N-S dimensions of are constructed circled just east of the Minsk-Shatek (27°33°2/53°1'R) road were 10,000 feet E-W and 8,300 feet N-S. The airfield was being IEW CLASSIFICATION TO BE THE CLASSIFICATION TO BE THE AMBRE OF THE AMBR OF THE A	ead Con-
4。 5。 6。 7。 AR RE-REVI	since 1946. The hanger had been dismentled at the BORLIN-TELPELHOF airfield. Two four-story brick buildings, each 115x65x40 feet, were built in 1946/1947 and occupied by construction workers and eir force soldiers. Two other brick buildings, each 265x 135x65 feet, were occupied by pilots and other officers. Three storage sheds for circraft accessories, garages, and repair shops were also aveilable. A radio station was in a four-story brick building, which is a rotating searchlight on its roof. A fuel dump of 26 large tanks, camouflaged by trees, was completed by June 1948. Another 20 tanks were scheduled. The field was occupied by twin-engine bouglas aircraft and biplanes. The airfield personnel included 500 to 350 officernd will. The field was guarded by air force soldiers and by civilians. The E-W and N-S dimensions of an contraction of the Minsk-Shutek (27°37°2/55°1'N) road were 10,000 feet E-W and 3,300 feet N-S. The airfield was being EW CLASSIFICATION. CLASSIFICATION.	ead leveled and a 6,600 to 10,000-foot asphalt runway was being built.

25X1

8. A stoel hangar, allegedly dismonthed in Fig. Filler, was being erected. I two more of these hangars were scheduled to be created in HealtCRAD and ACCICY.

9. The airport terminal was a three-story brick building, about 265x85x65 feet with a dome-slaped flight control station on top. It also contained offices dormitories and a restour at.

10. a. The following aircraft were stationed at the field:

About 20 twin-engine Douglas aircraft 55 to 40 biplanes 5 or 6 fighters.

b. equipped with two Soviet, 12-cylinder, crude oil engines.

25X1

25X1